Yesterday was the first chilly day we have experienced for several weeks. The change was felt on account of the warm pleasant weather we have been having.

The cutting down of the republican pole at Nantico will be let to the lowest bidder on long time. All bids should be forwarded immediately or sooner to Capt. G. M. Dunley, Nantico.

The members of Dunham Relief Corps No. 4 are especially requested to be present at the regular meeting at G. A. R. hall this Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. By order of the President.

The toy dealers will soon be arranging their holiday goods in a attractive style, and the eyes of the children will accordingly grow in dimensions until they reach the size of saucers.

Annie Scanlon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Scanlon, died yesterday morning of consumption, at her parents' residence, seven miles north of this city. She was twenty years old. The funeral will take place this morning at ten o'clock from St. Patrick's Catholic church.

The Washburn accommodation which formerly left here at 6:40 a. m. for St. Louis and returning 9:25 p. m., has been taken off. It is never run during the winter and will probably be replaced in the spring.

The official count is over in New York, and Cleveland and Hendricks are elected, and it is also a fact that Abel & Locke have the largest stock of wall paper and carpets in the city, and are selling at the lowest prices. n16d1w

The supreme lodge of the Knights of Pythias yesterday sent a check for $2,000 to Mr. Henry McClintock in favor of Mrs. Anna Warnock, widow of the late Henry Warnock, the Washburn engineer who was killed a few months ago.

Mr. Wm. Combs, formerly of Harriestown, has purchased Leffingwell's restaurant on South Main street, and will in future run it. He is enterprising and will endeavor to please his patrons and set the best meals in the city. Give him a call. n14dt

Harper's Monthly is on our table, replete as usual with choice reading, fine illustrations, and in variety and excellence of contents fully up to the highest standard of literature, American or foreign. The number before us is worth a year's subscription.

The funeral of the late Francis Malloy took place Sunday afternoon from the Catholic church, Rev. Father Mackin officiating. The remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery and were followed there by many sorrowing and sympathizing friends.

The appropriation for the completion of the state house at Springfield, was carried at the late election by a majority of 7,000 or 8,000. It is believed that the amendment giving the governor power to veto any item of an appropriation bill, was defeated.

The Secretary of State has received the returns from all the counties in the state except Cook county, and Oglesby's plurality is 14,072. When the returns come from Cook county his plurality will be about 15,000, some 10,000 less than Blaine's plurality in this state.

As a purifier, Ayer's Sarsaparilla acts directly and promptly. A single bottle will prove its merits. Many thousands of people are yearly saved from dangerous fevers by the exercise of a little timely care in properly cleansing the system by the use of this remedy. d&w1w

Dr. C. A. McLean, of twenty years' experience in his profession, has located on Durfee street in this city, and has an office over the New York store. He will give careful attention to all business entrusted to him. Medicines furnished. Special attention to the diseases of children. Nov18Hmo

Invitations are out for the marriage of Mr. Harry Egan, of this city, and Miss Carrie Gregory, of Jackson, Mich., niece of Dr. J. M. Gregory, well known here. The ceremony will be performed at the residence of the bride's parents, on Wednesday evening, October 26th. The couple will be "at home" after November 29th, at 363 West Prairie street.

Yesterday we sold several hundred extra copies of Sunday's edition of the Review containing our "Fell the Truth" roster, and could have sold as many more had the supply not given out. The weekly edition containing the same matter will be printed on Thursday and we will then have a limited supply of extras for our friends. Single copy five cents.

The claim of a certain republican against the late campaign editor of that party was ignored yesterday on account of lack of funds. It was paid, however, by a prominent republican who went down into his own pocket and pulled out the filthy lucre rather than have any disturbance raised for the man who held the claim threatened to put it in the hands of a constable.

"Boys! Don't burn those hats. Send them out to the poor who have no hats. If no better use can be made of them, burn them up and send them to the poor who have no hats." This was the advice given by a man who held the claim threatened to put it in the hands of a constable.

The new horse wagon for the paid fire department will arrive from St. Louis one day this week and will be kept at Rescue hose house with the chemical. The crew of the new wagon will be Frank Winnebrenner, captain, Henry Kossick, driver, and Chas. W. Hartley and Ed. Leach, hose men. A hose wagon is something new but is considered far superior to a cart or carriage. Instead of reeling the hose it is laid flat in the bed of the wagon.

The democrats of Nantico will celebrate the victory of Cleveland and Hendricks to-morrow evening, in a style that will completely eclipse all their former efforts of this campaign, and also outdo any ratification held in towns of the size since election day. One feature of the meeting will be "Eck" Wells, a prominent republican of that place, marching in the procession, and for every block passed giving three cheers for the victorious candidates of the democrats.

party. "Eck" does this in payment of a bet he made. The meeting will be a glorious one in every respect. The democrats of Nantico will send a cordial welcome to any visiting clubs or delegations from neighboring townships.

Avoid the harsh, irritating, griping compounds so often sold as purging medicines, and correct the irregularities of the bowels by the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills, which are mild and gentle, yet thorough and searching in their action. d&w1w

Wilbur Ballard and Ed Athens made a bet on Oglesby's plurality in this state. If it was more than 1,000 Athens was to wheel Ballard around the old square in a wheelbarrow, and if it was under that Ballard was to wheel Athens around. It is now time for the agreement to be fulfilled, but Athens is in Hot Springs and Wilbur is therefore cheated out of his ride. He doesn't mourn much, however, for the present condition of the old square would make the ride anything but pleasant.

Lewis Page, a colored man, was on trial before Judge Corley yesterday for striking a white girl. He is employed at the New Brunswick and she is employed at the kitchen. A large number of witnesses were examined and as the case was not completed at dark, it was continued until to-day.

Page claimed that the girl commenced hugging and kissing him and refused to leave when he told her, and that he was forced to slap her in the face. The case is attracting some little attention among the friends of the two.

The democratic ladies of Mt. Zion will give a grand free supper at the hall in that town, on Friday evening next, to which they cordially invite their democratic friends. The supper will be in honor of the victory of the democratic standard-bearers, Grover Cleveland and Thos. A. Hendricks, over the tattooed man from Maine, and the "Jack of Logans."

No pains will be spared by the ladies to make this supper worthy the victory it is intended to celebrate and commemorate, and all who attend can rest assured they will receive a cordial welcome and enjoy a good time.

The funeral of the late Captain D. L. Adams took place Sunday morning from the Baptist church, the services being conducted by the pastor, Rev. V. S. Burroughs. Appropriate music was furnished by the choir. The church was filled with relatives and friends of the deceased, many old settlers having come to pay the last sad tributes to the dead. Rev. Burroughs' remarks were eloquent and tender and his reference to the deceased was touching. At the conclusion of the services all those present were given an opportunity to take a last look at the features of the dead. The remains were interred in Greenwood cemetery and were followed to their final resting place by a great many people. The pall-bearers were Judge S. F. Greer, A. T. Hill, J. R. Gorn, R. Liddle, Thomas Hays, J. N. Bills, D. P. Elwood and W. H. Wiswell.

Governor Hamilton has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation. It reads as follows: "In conformity to a long established and proper custom, and in harmony with the proclamation of the president of the United States, I do hereby proclaim and set apart Thursday, the 27th of November, 1894, as a day of Thanksgiving in the state of Illinois. The people of this great commonwealth are hereby earnestly requested to lay aside all business and labor on that day and to join in praise to Almighty God who has given them much to be thankful for, and let us beseech the God of nations and states to save us from danger, turmoil and strife, and to graciously bless and care for all who toil for daily bread."

Jake Ruessman, the jolly good natured saloon keeper on East Main street, made a bet of a hat on the result of the election and lost it. He went to a hat dealer and got him to put the oldest and "brumt" hat he had in a band box and then getting the friend he bet with, he took him to the dealer and told him to pick out the "deadly" he desired. The hat was selected and the dealer wrapped it up but instead of giving it to the fellow, he gave him the old one he had previously placed in the band box. Jake's friend felt pretty good over his luck in winning the bet, and taking a crowd of friends down to Jake's he set them all up to the drink. After drinking to his health and hat, someone in the crowd who was aware of the joke, but the winner was to the color of the hick of the hat. The box was opened and the disappointed old hat exposed to view, where a loud laugh went round and the boys all unbedded again at the expense of the hat winner.

In every community there are boys and girls and oftentimes young men and ladies who do not know how or at least will not behave in a gentlemanly or lady like manner at public places of worship and amusement. They may be seen at every church service, at every entertainment, at public places, a party of ladies and ladies of this description at the Christian church Sunday and not only brought humiliation on themselves but caused general discomfiture to the congregation. Their whispering, giggling and misbehavior caused the pastor to look sternly at them for a moment and caused them to become subdued for a few minutes, but the spirit of mischievousness within them could not be controlled and they were soon cutting up again. The pastor was forced to stop in his discourse and request them to remain silent, and it is needless to say that for the remainder of the evening they did.

Christmas and Party Slippers.

L. L. Ferris & Co. are in receipt of the finest line of gents' and ladies' Christmas and party slippers ever brought to Decatur.

PERSONAL.

Helm Whitehurst spent Sunday at his old home in Springfield.

Miss Willie E. Hopping left last night for Newark, N. J., to spend the winter with relatives.

Arthur Willis, of St. Louis, was in the city over Sunday, and attended the funeral of Capt. Allen.

O. A. Davenport, foreman of the Springfield job room and book bindery, was in the city yesterday and gave us a call.

W. S. Greening and family will occupy Dr. Moore's handsome dwelling on West Main street and the doctor will have rooms there.

George Battles has resigned his position at Powers & Haworth's store and will soon take one at Freeman Bros. He is a popular salesman.

Mr. Arthur Dreaseback, editor of the State Center, Illinois, Ill., accompanied by his wife, spent Sunday with his father in this city, returning home yesterday.

Mr. G. W. Devada, of Blue Mound, was in the city last evening, on his way to Peoria to attend the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Old Fellow of Illinois, to which he is a delegate.

Miss Nettie Harsh, of Uniontown, Pa., Miss Annie Warden, of Mt. Pleasant, Pa., and Miss Hattie Scully, of Mercersburg, Pa., who have been visiting friends in Decatur for several weeks past, left for their respective homes in the Keystone state yesterday.

Died.

Mrs. John Satter died at her residence on South Main street, on Sunday evening at half-past 6 o'clock, of consumption. To-day at 2 o'clock the remains will be removed to the cemetery and placed in a vault until Monday next when they will be taken to Holmesville, Gage county, Nebraska, where the parents of the deceased reside. The husband will accompany the remains.

O-a J. Jennings died at his father's home in Boody, on Saturday evening. He was formerly a barber at N. Y. man's and well known in this vicinity. A few months ago he was married to a young lady at Taylorville and they came to this city to make it their home. Mr. Jennings' failing health made it necessary, however, for him to give up his position, and a short time after he went to New Mexico in the hope of improving his condition. On the 4th of the month he returned home and last week was in the city, but the dreaded disease consumption had marked him for its victim, and Saturday evening he passed away. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon and the remains were interred in Salem cemetery. His many friends here will regret to learn of his untimely death.

A two-year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Elzey McMillan, of Forsyth, died of congestion of the brain last Friday, after an illness of only about ten hours. The funeral took place Sunday, at 10 o'clock, Rev. M. S. Newcomer, of this city, conducting the services.

The Hanlons.

The Hanlons will appear here on Tuesday evening, in their famous play of "Le Voyage en Suisse" or "A Trip through Switzerland." The Philadelphia Times says:

"The Hanlons are one of the few combinations who have been given a second week at the Arch St. Theatre this season, and the wisdom of the management in prolonging the engagement will be proved by the attendance during the coming week. Since we are to have no Christmas pantomime it was not a bad idea to anticipate the season by bringing into the city before the holidays and giving us a taste of as good a pantomime entertainment as can be seen on this side of the water. The management of the stage has contributed not a little to the enjoyment of the audience, for tricks as complicated as are used in 'Le Voyage en Suisse,' must be well done to be effective." Popular prices.

County Court.

The following claims were allowed in the county court yesterday.

Against the estate of John H. McNeal, Zach Bachman $63, G. W. Thompson $1, Daniel Kerwood $5, Peter Bennett $36, J. W. Keeler $46, Sellman & Bachman $41.40, J. H. Hesseman $2.25, Hannah McNeal $300.50, William H. Hill $22, James McNeal $61.

Against the estate of Frederick Snyder, J. E. Bendure $350, Peter Port $62, H. J. Weyl $30, Conrad Ammann $30.

Against the estate of Joseph S. Brown, Jesse E. Bendure $17.35, J. B. Ballard $175.

"Zozo, the Magic Queen."

The above attractive piece will be presented at the opera house next Wednesday and Thursday evenings. The New York Herald says the following of it: "Zozo is something grand. The scenery is beautiful, the transformations exhibit great mechanical skill; the costumes are rich and novel, and produce a harmony in color which is rarely seen. By the combination of scenery, transformations, costumes and people, fairy-land seems to have been brought down to the comprehension of mortals." Popular prices, 35, 50 and 75 cents.

Notice.

Now is the time to buy good goods. Owing to our partnership expiring Jan. 1st, and in order to reduce our stock, we will sell our entire stock of boots and shoes at cost, strictly cash for thirty days. All persons knowing themselves to be indebted to us will please call and settle.

OTHER FOREIGN NEWS.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—Cholera is subsiding in Paris, and complete measures are being taken to stamp it out completely. The Parisian season is totally ruined, and people are flocking to Versailles, owing to an old superstition that epidemic disease never finds its way to that favored spot. It has been suggested by several prominent members of the Government that it would be well for the city of Paris to borrow 50,000,000 francs wherewith to sanitariously improve the condition of the capital. The work necessary for this improvement would give employment to hundreds who will be in need should the threatened epidemic find a permanent foothold, and the payment of the debt could be spread over a period of a hundred years without injustice, for posterity would certainly derive as much benefit as the present generation from the expenditure.

A committee of American and English residents of Paris have been formed for the purpose of assisting their countrymen and for the establishment of soup kitchens, consisting of Messrs. Beard, Gill and Harrison, Prof. Yeatman, Dr. McCarthy, and Messrs. Hogg, Ives and Sewell. Dr. John McGiven has issued a manifesto to the effect that there is no need for fear, and he advises only the weak, intemperate and nervous to leave Paris in the present circumstances.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—General Gordon's letter of November 4 is not accepted as conclusive evidence that he is alive. Some pessimists insist that the date must have been October 4. Military circles say that a messenger has made his way from Khartoum to Dongola in ten days, a splendid opportunity is offered to General Wolseley which he will be prompt to take advantage of. He will, they say, organize a small swift force of cavalry, mounted on camels, make a dash across the desert on the route taken by Gordon's messenger, enter Khartoum, and hold that city until the arrival of the main body of the Nile expedition. It is said that the greater part of General Gordon's letter, devoted to the discussion of the policy of England and her military arrangements.

BIRMINGHAM, Nov. 17.—Justin McCarthy, senior and junior, members of the House of Commons, addressed the National Club here yesterday. Justice McCarthy, Jr., delivered the inaugural address as president of the club. He said the Irish members of the House of Commons would not rest until they had a Parliament on College Green, Dublin, which, he prophesied they would have within five years.

CAIRO, Nov. 17.—Reports from the Nile show that the Canadian boatmen are expe-riencing more difficulty in getting the boats out of the cataract than they anticipated. The meanness of the water prevents them from seeing the rock. The difficulty at the Dal cataract, however, is diminishing, and the flotilla's rate of progress is likely to increase.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—Matthew Arnold is about to make an extended tour in America. Berlin, Nov. 17.—Only two delegates to the Congo conference have ever been in Africa. There was a conference between Baron de Courcel, French Ambassador, and Prince Bismarck Friday. It is believed that the principal topic discussed was the programme to be followed in the Congo Conference. Prince Bismarck has sent a circular letter of invitation to the different members of the conference.

Berlin, Nov. 17.—Bismarck, in his speech at the opening of the Congo Confer-ence, alluded, in general terms, to the high-benefit and public aims of the confer-ence. He said it had for its object the solution of three main questions: First, free navigation, with the freedom of trade on the Congo; secondly, free navigation on the Niger; thirdly, the formalities of the an-notation of territory to be observed in the continent of Africa. This constituted the positive aim of the conference.

International Park at Niagara.

Toronto, Nov. 17.—Sir Alexander Campbell, representing the Dominion, held a conference in this city Saturday with Hon. Mr. Mowat, Premier of Ontario, as to the best steps to be taken for expediting all the territory on the Canada side of the river, between Suspension Bridge and the high-lands proposed to be set apart as the Canadian portion of the International Park that is to include Niagara Falls. It is said that a favorable understanding has been arrived at, and that it will be necessary for the two schemes inaugurated by Lord Dufferin will be accomplished and information fact.

Robbed the Texas Pacific of $10,550.

BRYAN, Tex., Nov. 17.—The safe of the office of the Texas Express Company, of this place, was robbed Saturday night of $10,550, most of which was consigned to Charles Bryan & Howell, bankers. The money came after banking hours. The safe was unlocked with keys on which were the initials of a young Spaniard named Barrett, who has been arrested. It is thought his keys were obtained to divert suspicion from the proper parties. The town is greatly excited and many people are hunting for the robbers.

Killed in a Quarrel Over Property.

NAYASOTA, Tex., Nov. 17.—Friday a popular and respected planter named Thomas P. Miller was shot and killed near Washington by John Ewing, son of a wealthy land-owner, in a quarrel over a claim by Ewing to part of Miller's property. The murderer is under arrest.
